MODERN CURATOR COLLECTION

BENTLEY

Camera Ready

The modern curator has a story to tell. A document of history. An angle on the future. The pulse of the present. What caught your eye? Find it and frame it. Camera ready means it's finished and fit to post, publish, print.

Camera Ready™ perfectly completes the collection of styles in Modern Curator™: Look Sharp™, Seeing Things™, and Trained Eye™. The small-scale texture of Camera Ready drops a fine grid on the floor plane, inviting you to locate the other patterns in harmonizing ways to support the function and flow of the space. Camera Ready is color matched to the 12 colors in Modern Curator and scaled to strike a pose next to each pattern without stealing the spotlight or the budget.
